Balfour Beatty Communities Honored for Extraordinary Service to a Military Family in Need

Residential Communities Initiative recognizes Fort Bliss/White Sands Missile Range Project Community Manager for outstanding services to military members and their families

Newtown Square, Pa — February 14, 2012 — Balfour Beatty Communities, LLC, a subsidiary of Balfour Beatty Capital Group, Inc. and one of the leading Public-Private Partnership (PPP or P3) providers of housing, lifestyle and community solutions for members of the U.S. military and their families, announced that Deborah O'Brien, Community Manager at their White Sands Missile Range housing project in New Mexico has received the Unsung Hero Award given by leaders of the Army's Residential Communities Initiative (RCI) housing program.

The award honors an individual in the Army's housing program whose unwavering commitment to Soldiers and their families leads him/her to go above and beyond the normal scope of his/her daily housing duties.

Ms. O'Brien oversees the management and maintenance of the 425 residences in the White Sands Missile Range community of military members and their families. Her extraordinary efforts were exemplified by her compassion and dedication during a family tragedy. Ms. O'Brien proved to be a tremendous asset to all involved, while she served as a welcome liaison between the family and the emergency first responders and provided swift and efficient action during trying circumstances.

“We are proud of Deborah and the way she acted in the midst of crisis,” said Mark Lavin, Senior Vice President of Balfour Beatty Communities. “We are honored that Deborah’s dedication to our residents has been recognized by the RCI and thankful to have her as a member of our team,” said Terri Edelman, Senior Vice President of Balfour Beatty Communities. “Our top priority is ensuring that our service members and their families are well taken care of not only in our daily operations, but also in their personal well-being. Deborah and her team at White Sands Missile Range always provide the best service to our military members and their families.”
