Balfour Beatty Communities Foundation Accepting Scholarship Applications for 2012-2013 Academic Year

Open to all high school and undergraduate students residing in its communities throughout the country

Newtown Square, PA, December 1, 2011 - Balfour Beatty Communities Foundation, a non-profit organization committed to honoring military personnel – active, disabled and fallen – and their families, announced that scholarship applications from high school and undergraduate students of its family housing residents are now being accepted.

“Through our scholarship program, the Foundation hopes to shape the futures of our military member’s children as a way of recognizing the contribution of their parents. The Foundation also foresees this financial support encouraging each of these students in their development of leadership roles in their communities,” said Chris Williams, president of Balfour Beatty Communities Foundation.

In the last three years, Balfour Beatty Communities Foundation has awarded over 60 academic scholarships to well qualified and deserving students of its residents.

The application for 2012-2013 academic year, details and requirements can be found on its website www.bbcommunitiesfoundation.org. The application deadline is April 15, 2012.

The Foundation notes that these scholarships are a small way of saying ‘thank you’ to military members for the work that they do and the sacrifices military families make.

About Balfour Beatty Communities Foundation

(www.bbcommunitiesfoundation.org)

Balfour Beatty Communities Foundation is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization committed to honoring military personnel – active, disabled and fallen. The three primary goals of the Foundation include establishing places for communal gathering and reflection on the unselfish contributions they make for us and our nation; assisting returning service members requiring specially-adapted homes; and providing financial support to the children of military families in the form of scholarships and grants that promote the pursuit of education. In addition, the Foundation provides financial contributions to other non-profit or service organizations focused on supporting service members, veterans and their families.
